The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

British Columbia Archives and Records Service.

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

MEMBERS.

28. This Lodge shall not ballot upon any application for the Degrees (except by special dispensation from the Grand Master) until information has been received from the Grand Secretary that the applicant is free of the Black List, nor until notice of the name, age, profession and place of abode of the applicant shall have been sent to all the members of the Lodge in the summons for the meeting of the Lodge, nor until the application shall have been referred to a committee whose duty it shall be to make strict examination into the moral, mental, physical and other proper qualifications of the applicant and to report thereon at the next regular meeting, unless further time be granted. No applications shall be withdrawn after reference to a committee, except as hereinafter provided in this section. If the report of the committee or of any member thereof be unfavorable, no ballot shall be taken, but the Master shall, upon the reception of such report, declare the candidate rejected. If the report be favorable, the candidate shall be balloted for; and if for initiation it shall require an unanimous vote to elect. If but one black ball appear in the ballot box, the Master, without declaring the result, shall at once order a second ballot for the purpose of correcting a possible mistake, which ballot shall be final. After one ballot has been had, no discussion shall be permitted in the Lodge before the second ballot is taken, nor shall the second ballot be postponed until another meeting of the Lodge. If the committee find the applicant disqualified in consequence of insufficient residence or physical disability, and find no other objection to him, they shall make a special report thereon; in which case the Master may direct the withdrawal of the application without further action, and such direction shall be entered upon the record.

29. This Lodge shall have but one ballot for the three Degrees, but though an applicant may be elected to receive them, if at any time before his initiation objection be made by any member, or if, after his initiation, but before being passed, or after passing, before being raised, objection to his advancement be made by any member, such objection shall be referred to a committee, with power to enquire into the cause thereof, who shall, at the next regular meeting (unless further time be given) report thereon; and upon the reception of such report, if no cause for the objection has been assigned, or if the cause assigned be, in the opinion of two-thirds of the members present, not a valid and Masonic one, the Lodge may confer the Degrees in the same manner as if no objection had been made. Should the charge be found valid before initiation, the applicant shall be rejected; if any Degree has been given, the Brother shall be proceeded against as provided for by the Constitution.

He shall deposit with the Secretary his Grand Lodge certificate; and, if he is not a subscribing member of any Lodge, his demit from the Lodge of which he was last a member, and he shall shew that he is in good Masonic standing. His name, occupation and place of abode, as well as the name, location and number of the Lodge of which he was last a member, shall be placed on the summons for the next regular meeting of the Lodge. The petition shall be referred to a committee, whose duty it shall be to make strict examination into his moral, mental and other qualifications, and to report at the next regular meeting, unless further time be granted. If three members of the committee report unfavorably, the candidate shall be declared rejected, but if a majority report favorably; the Lodge shall proceed to ballot, and three black balls shall be required to reject the candidate.

31. When a candidate for initiation or affiliation is rejected, or a Brother reprimanded, suspended or excluded, no member or visitor shall reveal, either directly or indirectly, to such person, or any person, any transactions which may have occurred on the subject, nor shall any proceedings of the Lodge, not proper to be made public, be disclosed outside thereof, under the penalty of reprimand or suspension as the Lodge may determine, and the Worshipful Master shall direct this clause to be read immediately after any such rejection, reprimand or suspension.

DEMITTS.

32. Any member desiring to withdraw from the Lodge, shall signify such desire either personally or in open Lodge, or by letter addressed to the Secretary, to be read in open Lodge, and shall thereupon, provided he is in good standing and clear of all indebtedness to the Lodge, be entitled to his demit. It shall be the duty of the Worshipful Master to ascertain, before he signs the demit, that the Brother so withdrawing is in good Masonic standing. An application for a demit shall lie on the table for one month, unless the necessity of the case requires immediate action.

ARREARS.

33. In case any member shall have refused or neglected to pay his regular dues, during a period of twelve months, he shall be notified by the Secretary, that unless, either at or before the next regular meeting his dues be paid, or it be shown that his non-compliance with this rule has been caused by sickness or other misfortune, he shall be declared by the Master, on a two-thirds vote of the members present to be suspended from the rights and privileges of his Lodge. But the Lodge may remit his dues or grant him further time for payment if it is expedient. Payment of arrears up to the time of suspension shall, if the interval between the date of suspension and application be not greater than two years, restore him to full membership without ballot. PUNISHMENTS.

34. The Lodge has the power, by a two-thirds vote, of suspending, excluding or recommending for expulsion, a member for unmasonic, immoral, or infamous conduct; but no member shall be suspended or excluded without giving him at least one month's notice of the charge preferred, or complaint made against him, and of the time appointed for its consideration. He shall be at liberty to be present, and be offered every opportunity of defending himself. When the case has been investigated he shall withdraw, and the vote of the Brethren shall be given by ballot, subject to the right to appeal to the Grand Lodge. The name of every Brother suspended, excluded, or recommended for expulsion, and the cause of the penalty inflicted, shall be sent to the Grand Secretary.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

35. A Brother who may have rendered any service to the Craft in general, or to any particular Lodge, may, by a vote of the Lodge, be elected an honorary member. The Lodge must include honorary members in its returns to the Grand Lodge, and pay to the Grand Lodge similar dues for such honorary members as are payable for ordinary members.

36. Honorary membership shall not confer the right of voting in the Lodge, unless specially conferred by a vote of the Lodge at a regular meeting—previous notice of the intention to confer the right, and the name, residence and occupation of the Brother in whose case the vote is to be had, having been first stated in the usual summons.

VISITORS.

37. Any Master Mason in good standing may be permitted to visit the Lodge, and any entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft may be permitted to visit the Lodge while working in any Degree which he has received.

38. If no Brother present can vouch for the visitor, the Master shall appoint a committee of Brethren skilled in the work to examine him.

39. If any member of the Lodge objects to sitting in the Lodge with the visitor, the Master shall refuse him admittance, or if he has been admitted, require him to withdraw.

40. Before any visitor can be examined as to his knowledge of Masonry, he must state the name and location of the Lodge of which he is then, or was lately, a member, or in which he received the Masonic Degrees, which shall be reported to the Master, or the Lodge, before a committee of examination can be appointed.
